I thought you'd be interested to know:

Scott Breckinridge learned that one of the transcribers in Mexico at the time of OSWALD's ~~MMMMM~~ visit there was a Douglas J. FEINGLASS (P). True name is Brois D. TARASOFF, who was a Staff Agent, retired November 1970 and now lives:

Rancho Contento
P.O. ~~MM~~ Box #7
Cuidad Granja Jalisco, Mexico
Telephone: 21-68-89

TARASOFF has a son who is a Staffer with the Agency working in LA Division -- on the Chile Desk....Raymond TARASOFF.

About two weeks ago another Staffer named "Millie" who works in Training and is a friend of TARASOFF received a letter from him in which TARASOFF enclosed a photo of someone who he asked Millie to help identify. Millie said she thought the individual in the photo looked like Valerie Kostikoff (phonetic), a Soviet Intel Officer. Millie wrote back to TARASOFF and advised him of same.

Source of the above info is Mr. Ben Pepper, SE Division, x9131.

The above info was passed to Mr. Breckinridge and the undersigned suggested to Mr. Breckinridge that he contact Mr. Pepper directly for further details or questions that he might want to ask him.

P.S. I don't know what this all adds up to. Mr. Breckinridge was primarily interested in finding out who the transcriber was. He said the transcriber reported that whoever it was on the phone talking to the Soviet Embassy spoke very poor Russian...
